

Employment Support Services

Services providing on the job support and training are available to individuals with disabilities. These services alleviate the burden of additional training and are free to the employer.

Job Coaching

Skilled coaches assist the individual employee with learning:

- ♦ tasks of the job
- ♦ technology needed for the job
- ♦ expectations of the supervisor
- ♦ workplace etiquette

Job Follow Along

Ongoing support:

- ♦ Regular meetings with the employee to talk about things that are going well and address any difficulties or issues. Frequency and duration are based on the need of the individual; for example, once a week, every other week, once a month, etc.
- ♦ A resource for employers if any questions or concerns arise.

We are here to help!
